NEW BUILDING IS COMMUNITY NEED

Recent Survey By the Hockenbury System Shows the Locality Ready And Willing to Undertake Important Project Without Delay

CAMPAIGN, LAST OF JULY

M. P. Neighbor And W. J. Graef, Campaign Directors, Are In City And Work Is Started On Plans to Be Announced Daily to Public As Ready

To secure a new, fire-proof and thoroughly modern hospital large enough to serve the needs of this community for most sickness and accidents, a campaign is to be launched here for the purpose of raising a building fund, according to an announcement made by the directors of the Charleroi-Monessen hospital this morning through their president, John B. Schafer.

This decision on the part of the hospital board is the result not only of the need as recognized by the directors of the hospital, but also on account of the constant agitation on the part of the citizens of this community who feel that the good health and emergencies requiring hospital care, demand a hospital better than the one at North Charleroi, which now serves this community.

While the present hospital is rendering excellent service to the community with the facilities it has, considering they do not have sufficient room and considering also that the building is a frame structure, which does not provide adequate space or provision for the best of care in all cases.

The present hospital nursing staff are giving the best service possible with the equipment and building at their disposal. But it is pointed out by President Schafer, that a good doctor and a good nurse are handicapped seriously when the hospital is inadequate. The directors of the hospital have been doing exceedingly good work, it is declared, with what they have to do with, but it is pointed out that the hospital needs of this community have outgrown both the size and the kind of building now housing this community's present hospital.

For several years the directors have been considering ways and means of getting a new hospital and after thorough consideration, a second survey has recently been made of the locality by the Hockenbury System, Inc., of Harrisburg, Pa., and it was decided to proceed without further delay with a money raising campaign to secure a building fund because the investigation showed that the community was unanimous.

MAN HAS MANIA FOR KILLING BIRDS

One of the most unique cases coming under the observation of the authorities of Washington county, was that of yesterday, when Chief of County Detectives William B. Dinsmore and other minions of the law, while searching the home of Lorenzo Scadavini, aged 40, of Newtown, near Fredericktown, for contraband liquor, they found 22 song and insectivorous birds which had been ruthlessly captured. Taken before the accused tried to make his escape, Justice of the Peace George S. McClelland of Fredericktown, he was fined $10 for each of the birds, a total of $220, in addition to the costs of the case.

The slaughtered birds were found secreted in a trunk in the home of Scadavini. They had been bundled in a handkerchief, and the killing had been of previous moment.

The 22 birds which had been slain with a shotgun, represented 10 different varieties as follows, two goldfinches, three sapsuckers, two bluebirds, two rain crows, four wild canaries, two bullfinches, two American sparrows, three bee birds, one red-bird and one meadowlark.

LESS THAN 30 PERCENT OF WOMEN PAY THEIR TAXES

Published here show that less than 30 per cent of the women in Luzerne county paid their taxes.

The last legislature passed an act whereby women could be imprisoned for failure to pay taxes but as the county authorities have never imprisoned men for failure to pay taxes it is unlikely any action will be taken against the women.

According to county authorities, women often explain that they do not vote and don't want to and so will not pay taxes. Many also refuse to pay school taxes on the ground that they have no children in school.

Collecting taxes from the women has become one of the big problems for both county and municipal authorities. Some school districts in this section even tried special personal effects but to no avail.

P. H. C. HEAD DIES AT SHARON HOME

Andrew Curtin McLean, 64 years old, Supreme President of the Protected Home Circle, fraternal and insurance organization, and president of the Pennsylvania Insurance Federation, died suddenly last night in his country home at Sharon, Pa., from heart failure.

Mr. McLean is very well known in Charleroi, having been here a number of times in behalf of the local Protected Home Circle, 303. Several weeks ago Mr. McLean visited Charleroi to take part in the conferring of the Inner Circle Degree.

He was stricken while working in his orchard, and his body was found some time later by members of the family. He leaves his widow and two daughters, Mrs. Frank Mallett and Mrs. William McIntyre, both of Sharon. He was a thirty-third degree Mason.

VAN VOORHIS COMING.

On Tuesday, July 15, at the Charleroi Baseball park, the Van Voorhis team will play the Washington Avenue team. Time of the game is 5:30 o'clock, and the proceeds will be given to the Charleroi Boy Scouts. It is expected that a large crowd will be present, as everybody should be glad to help the boys. The admission will be 25 cents; see Bert Mitchell for your tickets.

Foreign born residents of the United States kill the birds for eating purposes. In their native land apparently there are no restrictions on killing birds.

In addition to being summarily fined for the 22 birds found in his possession, Scadavini was also held for court for violation of the liquor laws. It is the second time he has been charged with evading the Volstead and similar laws and his bail was fixed at $2,000 by Justice of the Peace McClelland, which he furnished.

The Charges of Sedition to Be Withdrawn

Attorney General George W. Woodruff of Pennsylvania has notified that steps would be taken to withdraw the sedition charges against the three members of the International Workers Aid.

A committee consisting of Attorney General Woodruff, two of his deputies, the Secretary of the Board of Censors and Deputy Superintendent of the State Police reviewed the film and found "nothing seditious whatever" about it, the attorney general's letter is said to have declared. The attorney general's letter was sent in reply to a protest by the Civil Liberties Union against the arrest June 13 on sedition charges of Schindler, Roberts and Okonem of the International Workers Aid.

WE'VE WARNED YOU.

The time is not far distant when you are going to blame yourself or us because all available home-sites at LYNNWOOD are SOLD. Such property as LYNNWOOD, with its planned and assured development offers investment opportunity that is seldom indeed presented to the general public. Men and women of vision are not waiting to "see what happens." We've warned you often — do not blame us if you wait and lose out. You can still get in on the ground floor and buy from the developers of LYNNWOOD at rock bottom prices, or you can wait until this wonderful property is developed and buy from speculators at greatly increased prices. The decision rests with you — but assure yourself that LYNNWOOD home-sites will never be cheaper — opportunity vanishes with the "sold out sign." Come — see for yourself. Low Prices — Easy Terms. Salesmen always on the grounds.

A QUANTITY OF WINE SEIZED— BOND GIVEN

County Detective Bell and other county officers of Uniontown paid a visit to Belle Vernon yesterday afternoon about 2 o'clock and raided four small stores, located in Main street, Company, which resulted in the finding a large quantity of wine.

A short time ago the county officers raided these places, but no sufficient evidence could be obtained to convict. Yesterday, however, they swooped down on the four stores and found a large quantity of wine at each place, haled the defendants before Justice of the Peace Ellsworth Ream of Belle Vernon. They furnished bond for $1,000 each for the September term of court.

The four defendants are Joe Desimone, John Mazzie, Angelo Suppo and Cyril Selvinia.

Six arrests were made yesterday by officers conducting raids in Centerville borough and Fredericktown districts in an effort to curb the violations of the liquor laws in the southeastern section of Washington county.

Persons arrested as a result of evidence of violations discovered at their homes follow: Tony Yankus, Centerville; Andy Rasky, Centerville; Joe Pilets, Vesta Heights; Frank Olcarhak, Centerville; Mary King, near Fredericktown, and Lorenzo Scadavini, of Newton, near Fredericktown.

All the defendants were arraigned before Justice of the Peace George McClelland of Fredericktown, and held for court in $1,000 bail, except in the case of Scadavini, who had to furnish $2,000. All were able to raise the required sums except Olcarhak and Rasky.

Officers participating in the raids were Chief County Detective W. B. Dinsmore, County Detective B. M. Laird, Chief of Police Lew Vandevor, of Fredericktown, and Policemen Smith and Channing of Vesta.

Highway Improvement Being "Jockeyed", In Opinion Of C. of C. Directorate

At the special meeting of the Board of Directors of the Charleroi Chamber of Commerce held last evening much indignation was expressed at the delay of the State Highway Department in completing the survey for the continuation of Route No. 268 from Stockdale to Coal Center.

This survey was authorized last February, and has not been completed. It is the opinion of many of the members of the board that there is too much "jockeying" with this highway by the State, and that the Highway department is not acting in good faith.

Secretary James T. Heffran was directed to get in touch with the County Commissioners, to see what can be done to compel the State Highway department to keep faith with the people in the building of this road; otherwise, it is evident that the up-river people will be isolated again this winter.

MAADOO WILL SUPPORT DAVIS FOR PRESIDENT

New York, July 12—John W. Davis will get the news from the Progressive Democratic party and will have the support of William D. Maadoo, the Californian announced as being for Europe today.

Maadoo pledged himself to work when he returns from his trip abroad early in September.

Mr. and Mrs. Maadoo, their daughter, his secretary and political secretary Blaggett, sailed on the Bremen.

The statement given out by Maadoo reads: "Mr. Davis and I have been friends for the past 12 years and I had the pleasure of discussing the political situation with him yesterday. The great party of Progressive Democrats who supported me so strongly in the convention are anxious to know my

ANNUAL EXCURSION AND PICNIC

The Methodist Episcopal and Presbyterian Sunday schools of Roscoe are making plans for an excursion and picnic on August 1.

A special train has been arranged for via the Pennsylvania Railroad to leave Roscoe at an early hour in the morning, the time to be announced later to take the people to Kenneywood for the day's outing.

Last year these same schools went to Kenneywood, and were so well pleased with it that they again decided to have their annual picnic in the popular park. The railroad fare from Roscoe will be 85 cents for adults and 45 cents for children, between the ages of 5 and 12 years. Rates from other stations will soon be announced.

While the excursion is being run under the auspices of the joint Sunday schools, everybody is cordially invited to join in the day's outing.

New Equipment And New Road to Camp—Charleroi And Donora, First Per- iod. Monessen And Mon- ongahela, Second Period

CAMP OPENS ON JULY 21

Closes August 18—The Donora And Charleroi Scouts Will Enjoy the Amenities Incident to Life In the Open—Expect a Large Contingent

The plans and preparations for the annual summer camp of the Monongahela Valley Boy Scouts have been completed at Camp Underwood, near Clarksville, and many boys are beginning to register with our troops. The members of the Camping committee—J. B. Schafer, Charleroi; Chairman: Dr. J. W. Mason of Charleroi; W. F. Blackburn of Monessen; Dr. D. C. Farquhar of Monessen, and Nathaniel Muir and Arthur Kohnfelder of Donora, and Arthur Swift and Harry Larmer of Monongahela City, after several meetings, have at last completed the arrangements for camp and have assigned periods to the advanced districts. Camp will open Monday, July 21, and close August 18. This will be divided into two periods: first from July 21 to August 4; second, from August 4 to August 18.

The Donora and Charleroi Scouts will go to camp during the first period, while the Monessen and Monongahela Scouts will arrive at the second period. However, each Scout of the troop has the privilege of registering at either of the periods, providing that he cannot attend with the boys from his own district. In a camping prospectus, which has been sent to parents, full plans and details of the program have been given, as well as the costs, which are ten dollars for each period, or five dollars per week. All registrations will have to be completed by July 14, with the paying of one dollar registration fee to be included in the first week's payment. Parents and visitors will rejoice to learn that they will not have to enter camp on the same impassable road that was used last year. A new right-of-way has been secured through Camp Buckingham fields, through Sandy Plains, and cars may be parked in the fields above the camp, with three minutes walking distance. This road will be well marked, and is in good condition all of the way, so that many visitors will, doubtless, take advantage of helping the boys, on Wednesday and Sunday afternoons and evenings.

Manager Is Chased
When He Questions
Umpire Klem's Decision

Bill McKennie criticized Umpire William J. Klem, early in yesterday's ball game and after a peppy debate with the little arbiter the Pittsburgh pilot was ordered into exile. He witnessed the remainder of the battle with the Braves from a seat in the grandstand and had the satisfaction of seeing his Pirates submerge the Braves under an 8-2 defeat thereby breaking even on the four-day series.

The rumpus arose over a strike that was called on Captain Max Carey in the third inning. The member of the Buccos took exception to the decision when the next offering came over the plate and Carey was compelled to rap the ball to the box and a runner ahead of him was retired at third base. Then the double steal was broken up and Cuyler's liner to Gus Felix ended the inning.

LYNCH TO START
DRIVE FOR THE FEATHER TITLE

Ambition still rankles in the two fists of Joe Lynch, twice champion, having won the world's bantamweight title in 1920, lost it in 1921, regained it a year later and then uncrowned again this year, Lynch now aspires to sit on a ring throne for the third time.

Because of added weight like Lew Tindler and other leather pushers, Lynch has out-grown the bantamweight division. He has graduated into the featherweight class and it is the 126-pound division that he hopes to rule as champion.

Although twice a title holder, Lynch is still in his twenties. Age will not handicap him in his drive, as he has just turned twenty-six. Nor should long years of service in the ring be a barrier to his contemplated climb. The New York dispenser of punches has been fighting only seven years and shows few marks of battle in spite of the fact that he twice climbed to the bantamweight throne and twice was pushed from it.

The aviators were in good health and anxious to continue their journey.

WHERE WILL IT END?

She who was Marguerite Clark, famous stage and screen star, but who for six years past, has been wife of a mighty lucky husband, Harry Williams of Patterson, La., writes that she is playing her greatest role; that she finds happiness in raising chickens, working among her flowers and attending to household duties. "I believe," she says, "I could find similar happiness if I had to work hard in a smaller home."

A good many heads of city homes are being convinced that there must come a return of woman's talents to something like Marguerite Clark's, or there will be a crash, moral and domestic. In such homes, the children are coming to care less and less for the home life.

It is go, go all the time. Dances, joy-rides, theatre parties, one-piece bathing parties, card parties, cigarettes, face paint, lipsticks—a continual urge for "thrills."

The rapidity, rush and daring of business life, in these days, are nothing compared to the rapidity, daring and sophistication of youth. A good many fathers are anxiously asking what the rising generation will become, where will all the "thrill" lead, when will come the social breakdown.

All that fame, public applause and big pay could give, Marguerite Clark had, but she finds her greatest happiness in working in her home, and the home is the foundation of civilization.

How many city youths have home-making as their ideal of happiness?

Before returning home, they also expect to visit in Chicago and Benton Harbor, Michigan.

LEADERS PARENTS OF BRAND NEW IDEA

Washington, July 12.—LaFollette leaders today were the proud parents of a brand new political idea. They call it the "poor man's campaign fund."

"The birth of this strapping youngster was announced unofficially as executive heads of the Progressive National committee went into closed session here in their first important meeting.

The "poor man's campaign fund" its originators say, will solve without troubling the difficult problem of financing an independent candidacy. It will "prove at once popular and practical."

Large contributions will be barred. Millionaires, even if they see fit, will not be allowed to assist LaFollette toward the presidential chair. His candidacy, in the interest of the plain people, will be financed by plain people.

A finance sub-committee of six members has been working out this plan for small and widely distributed gifts since the Cleveland conference and today they were to report. They will not attempt to raise a large fund.

"Our organization has accomplished great things with little money in the past, and we expect to do as well in the future. The American people are not corrupt. All we need is enough money to broadcast the truth," one spokesman said.

Senator LaFollette yesterday was approached by the organized railway men. He conferred with representatives of practically all the brotherhoods regarding the political situation and although a definite alliance was not pledged, Progressive leaders expressed themselves as pleased with the results of the visit.

"Fighting Bob" has decided that he will not confine his campaign to the radio, but will make a number of speeches, carrying his issues to the country. He will not leave Washington for the west for at least three weeks, however.

attitude toward Mr. Davis' candidacy and my visit was made for the purpose of learning directly from Mr. Davis his views on the important issues before the country. I am satisfied that he is in full accord with the Progressive program outlined in the Democratic platform.

In Society's Realm

Mrs. J. C. Hagan entertained at her home in McKean avenue yesterday afternoon, the members of the Thursday Afternoon Bridge club in honor of her house guest, Mrs. Mabel Hindman, who is visiting here from Seattle, Washington. Two tables were in play. A delicious luncheon, served by the hostess, brought the pleasant afternoon to a close. Mrs. Fred Brady of Lincoln avenue, will be hostess at a Mah Jong party at her home this evening in honor of Mrs. Hindman.

The regular monthly meeting of the Anna Kugler class of the Christ Lutheran church was held at the home of Miss Lula Matson of Meadow avenue Thursday evening, with a good attendance. After the business hour there followed a social hour that was enjoyed by all present. Music was the principal diversion. Plans were made to hold a weiner and marshmallow roast at Oakland park, July 16. The visitors present were Rev. and Mrs. C. B. King. A dainty luncheon was served by the mother of the hostess, with the assistance of Miss Grace Piersol. The next meeting will be held at the home of Miss Hilda Miller of First street, August 7.

Mrs. Henrietta Barhouse was delightfully surprised last evening, when a few of her friends gathered at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Joseph Albert of Fallowfield avenue and Eighth street, to help celebrate her 82nd birthday anniversary. Music was the chief feature of entertainment, and social converse was enjoyed. The honored guest received many pretty gifts. At a late hour, a luncheon was served by Mrs. Albert, after which the guests departed wishing her many more happy birthdays. Among those present were: Mrs. Elsie Porignaux, Mrs. Mary Ghene, Mrs. Valeria Delfosse and Mrs. Mary Molle and sister. Mrs. Barhouse has lived in Charleroi a number of years and is well known here.

EGYPT'S PREMIER IS SHOT AND BADLY WOUNDED

Cairo, Egypt, July 12.—Zaghlul Pasha, premier of Egypt, was shot and dangerously wounded in a crowded railway station here this morning as he was about to enter a train for Alexandria.

The premier was bidding goodbye to friends when an unknown man, who had wormed his way through the crowd, suddenly drew a small automatic pistol and opened fire.

There was great excitement for a time and when police arrived the premier was lying on the station floor with a bullet in his right lung. He was taken to his home where physicians made a hasty examination and declared the premier's condition is satisfactory.

The man who fired the shots was set upon by the crowd and badly beaten before he was rescued by police and taken to jail. His name could not be learned during the early excitement, nor was there any apparent reason for his act.

There was tremendous excitement throughout the day, as it was at first reported the premier had been killed.

FORMER SCENERY HILL
WOMAN BACK ON A VISIT

Mrs. John Patterson and daughter, Catherine, of Fitzgerald, Ga., who are enroute to visit relatives in Indiana, arrived Wednesday to spend some time with Mrs. Patterson's mother, Mrs. Catherine Storer, and sister, Mrs. B. D. Matthews, and brother, T. M. Storer, and other relatives at Scenery Hill. Mrs. Patterson was born and reared at Scenery Hill and was a well-known teacher in the county prior to her marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson resided in the Scenery Hill section for a time, but later removed to the county seat, where Mr. Patterson engaged in business. They went from Washington to the state of Georgia, where Mr. Patterson is operating a poultry farm. This is Mrs. Patterson's first visit in the Scenery Hill section in 21 years and she notes many changes, the most remarkable being the improved national park with the vast amount of traffic over it in contrast to the quiet old village of her childhood days.

NEW BUILDING IS COMMUNITY NEED

in expressing its willingness to support such a campaign at this time.

This survey showed that despite the present business situation there is every indication that in a couple of weeks conditions would improve. The money is here that can be spared from business and from incomes to make possible the new hospital, states the report, and that is why the board of directors of the hospital have decided to proceed at once with the money raising campaign.

M. P. Neighbor and W. J. Graef, campaign directors of the Hokenbury System Inc., of Harrisburg, Pa., are in the city and have already started their work.

A large volunteer sales organization will be built from citizens in Charleroi and adjoining towns to take subscriptions from business men, mill workers, miners and others. Plenty of time will be given the subscribers to make their payments. The women as well as the men will be expected to work on the campaign, it is announced, and as soon as the organization can be completed the actual soliciting will be started. The date will be announced later.

"Everyone of the hospital directors, the doctors who have had occasion to bring patients to our hospital and every citizen who has had occasion to use it, realize that this community is seriously in need of a new up to date hospital," said President Schafer this morning.

"A hospital in Pittsburgh or some other city cannot serve this community as efficiently and as satisfactorily as this new hospital will when it is done," continued Mr. Schafer.

"There is a big advantage in having one's relatives and friends and employees properly cared for in a hospital at home, as it will save time and in that way will often save lives. In the case of accidents the hospital here will be much easier reached; and in all cases friends and relatives of the patients can much more easily visit the hospital and keep in touch with the cases."

"There is no way in which this community can secure a hospital except by subscribing the money for a building fund. The state health department has approved the site at Lock No. 4 on account of the favorable air currents and it is doubtful if a better location could be secured than the one which we already have."

The directors of the hospital are: Messrs. J. B. Schafer, president; J. B. Tussing, Harry W. Scott, R. A. Roberts, R. B. Reeves, Stenham T. Woodward, George H. Hott, Thomas P. Tweed, W. D. Pollock, Michael Rosenbloom and Mrs. R. A. Roberts.

Machiavelli

Machiavelli was an Italian statesman, historian and man of letters (1469-1527). It is said the object of his book, "The Prince" is to show that all is fair in diplomacy. The term "Machiavellism" has come to mean political cunning and duplicity, the art of tricking and overreaching by diplomacy.

installed in the spring. This meets with all the requirements of the State. Health authorities of sterile drinking water, which will be piped directly into camp to the kitchen. This work is now being done by the Tri-Cities Water company under the plan of William Ludwig, who volunteered his services in completing this project. In addition to this, very strict rules have been made that no boy leaves camp on a hike, unless he carries one of the camp canteens filled with Uniorazone tablets, with which to render safe any water used on the trip.

A new swimming pool is being constructed to be filled by the same water as the spring, which lies just below camp. A metal limestone basin has been formed, and a dam thrown across the bottom of it, which will give a safe swimming pool for both beginners and expert swimmers, filling it from ten to 3 feet. Being so close to camp this year, this pool will be frequented by the boys so that they will have an opportunity to swim before they get home. An athletic field, with a baseball diamond, volleyball court, and a basketball court specially constructed in the lower field below camp. A track and jumping activity are also on the program, and all may take part in the sports, being under the supervision of athletic officials.

In addition to this, a number of Junior officers and six Scouts will be in camp to head up the various activities. They will be: From Charleroi, Laughhead, Harry Torbert, John Halstead, Charleroi Chairman, and Harry Sichi, Monessen Basketball star. From Donora: Jalo, Urho and Leo Sien, Andy Sukol and William Ruebner. From Monongahela, Morris Wickerham and Harry MacKenney.

Spoons in History

Ordinary spoons were known to the Egyptians, who made them of wood, stone, ivory and bronze, and in Biblical times we may read that Moses made golden spoons for the tabernacle. Silver spoons have been found in the buried cities of Pompeii and Herculaneum. The name "spoon" is evolved from an Anglo-Saxon word that meant splinter of wood, so we can guess what the primitive English employed for this useful implement.

The "Nine Worthies"

The nine heroes of history and romance long popular in medieval art and history were three pagans, three Jews and three Christian men: Hector of Troy, Alexander the Great, Julius Caesar; Joshua, David and Judas Macabees; King Arthur, Charlemagne and Foderey de Bouillon. These heroes were a familiar and popular subject in tapestries and paintings and

Obsolete Documents

The folding rooms of the capitol are filled with thousands of publications that are either obsolete or worthless for public distribution, the public printer declares. In the storage vaults of the capitol may be found annual reports on finance dating as far back as 1876, agricultural yearbooks of the crop of 1879 (although new additions are printed at the rate of 400,000 copies annually), reports on the Paris exposition of 1878, ten-year-old nautical almanacs, prayers of the chaplain of the Sixty-second congress, army regulations dating back to 1895 and thousands of obsolete congressional directories.

Knew Their Origin

A young woman recently received a letter from a man in the Indian Territory, and had made several copies of Indian baskets of which she was very proud. A friend, who had been living in Arizona, called upon the young woman, who showed the baskets with considerable pride.

"They are really very well done," commented the visitor, "but, of course, they are not the real Indian baskets." "Why, Mrs. Robinson," indignantly exclaimed the maker, "how can you say that when I just told you that I made them myself?"
